Don’t go where the path may lead. Go instead where there is no path... and leave a trail.
14 Years ... The herd continues to grow
Do REAL cowboys TWITTER?
You betcha!
Do REAL cowboys TWITTER?
You betcha!

Why????

Who needs to hear the PTP message?
Do REAL cowboys TWITTER?
You betcha!

Webinars Free

Next Scheduled: November 1st

Who are you going to ask to participate?
Do REAL cowboys TWITTER?
You betcha!

Sell your community:
Community Profiles

Amarillo, TX
Amarillo is the 14th-largest city, by population, in the state of Texas, the largest in the Texas Panhandle, and the seat of Potter County. A portion of the city extends into Randall County. The population was 190,695 at the 2010 census. The Amarillo metropolitan statistical area (MSA) has an estimated population of over 250,000 in four counties. Amarillo sits at the crossroads of Interstate 40, which connects the East and West Coasts, and Interstate 27/Highway 287 which runs north and south along the Ports-to-Plains Corridor. More
Do REAL cowboys TWITTER?
You betcha!
Cover all the trails and make sure they hear ya loud and clear.
Cover all the trails and make sure they hear ya loud and clear.
Cover all the trails and make sure they hear ya loud and clear.
Gotta tell it to the folks down home too.
Gotta tell it to the folks down home too.
Gotta tell it to the folks down home too.

Gotta go among ‘em
Saddle up and ride together... and it'll be a lot easier for ya.
Saddle up and ride together... and it'll be a lot easier for ya.
Saddle up and ride together... and it'll be a lot easier for ya.
Do not let it be:

I’m fixin’ to do it

Instead:

Git-R-done!
Happy Trails to You,
until we meet again!